

Roger B. Irwin, Esq.

has joined the law offices of Salzmann Hughes, P.C.

Roger has a very active estate practice and is well known in the Carlisle area for his knowledge in the areas of all levels of estate practice, estate administration and real estate. Roger will be practicing out of the Firm's Carlisle office. Roger formerly practiced at the firm Irwin & McKnight.

Mr. Irwin stated "I am extremely pleased to be able to continue representing my clients who I care about so greatly at a full service law firm that has built a strong reputation in the community. Being reunited with Jim Hughes who was a former partner of mine years back is equally as thrilling. I think my clients will appreciate and value what I and Salzmann Hughes are able to offer in the way of personal service and depth of legal experience." Jim Hughes echoed the comments of Mr. Irwin. "When Roger called and said he would like to work together again I was delighted. Roger's experience is significant and he has a lot to offer. Roger is also a consummate professional and cares deeply for his clients and their families that he represents. It is what we strive for here at Salzmann Hughes."

Roger is a graduate of Carlisle High School, Dickinson College and The Dickinson School of Law. He has served as president of several civic and professional organizations including the Cumberland County Bar Association, Y.M.C.A., Carlisle Industrial Development Association and Children and Youth Services and has served as an elder at Grace Baptist Church of Carlisle for over 50 years.
